Asleep Amid Flames.

Breaking into a blazing home, some firemen lately dragged the sleeping inmates from death. Fancies, security, and death near. It's that way when you neglect coughs and colds. Don't do it. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption gives perfect protection against all throat, chest and lung troubles. Keep it near, and avoid suffering, death and doctor's bills. A teaspoonful stops a late cough, persistent use the most stubborn. Harmless and nice tasting, it's guaranteed to satisfy by H. L. Tucker. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Two Anarchists Sentenced.

Patterson, N. J., Oct. 31.—Judge Scott this morning sentenced Wm. Macqueen, an Englishman, and Rudolph Crossman of New York, both anarchists, to eight years of hard labor in the New Jersey penitentiary. The two anarchists were convicted of rioting and on two indictments for malicious mischief growing out of the damage done by mobs led by them on June 18 last in the riots at Robert Gaede's dye house and the Hall mill.

They were given three years for inciting and leading riot and two years for wrecking the Gaede works and three years each for damage to the Hall mill, the last to run concurrent with the sentence for rioting, making their time in prison eight years in all.

Counsel for the accused applied to the court for a writ of error, and it was granted. This will act as a stay and keep them out of prison until the supreme court reviews the case and gives its decision. Both furnished $5,000 bail pending the action of the higher court.

The convicted men came to Patterson during the dyers' strike and at the Belmont Park meeting, June 18, made inflammatory anarchistic speeches, and then led the strikers in an attack on dye houses and silk mill, doing much damage and necessitating the sending of troops here.

Piano Tuning.

To whom it may concern: This certifies that the bearer, F. M. Skaggs, has done considerable work for us, and we always found his tuning and repairing perfectly done. We consider him an honest and perfectly reliable workman and anyone entrusting work to his care are sure it will be done satisfactorily.

A Former Butler Girl.

The many friends and acquaintances of Miss "Bessie" Parkinson in our city will be glad to hear of her steady advancement in music. The following is from a Paris letter in the New York Herald of recent date:

"Miss Elizabeth Parkinson, of Kansas City, is a singer who is bound to be heard of shortly. She is the pet pupil of Mme. Marchesi, who says she has more confidence in Miss Parkinson than she ever had in any previous scholar. Her voice is pronounced to be sweeter than Melba's and it is asserted that she sings better."

Miss Parkinson has signed an engagement with the Opera Comique for three years, and despite her agreeable experience in Marseilles last November, she may yet hope to attain success in France. When she appeared as Sapho in Marseilles the audience rose at her entrance and refused to listen, saying that they wanted no foreigners. The uproar was so great that Miss Parkinson had to retire.

"American singers do not get any show in France. They come out with the highest recommendations, sing once or twice and are heard of no more."

Startling, But True.

"If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr. King's New Pills is," writes D. H. Turner, Dampscott, Pa., "you'd sell all you have in a day. Two weeks' use has made a new man of me." Infallible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c at H. L. Tucker's drug store.

Left All to a Kansas Girl.

Hawthorne, Kan., Nov. 4.—Miss Lizzie Boyce, of Padonia, a number of years ago took care of an old man who became suddenly ill while passing her home. After his recovery he left and Miss Boyce did not hear of him again until she received word from Seattle, Wash., the other day, of his death. He had no near friends or relatives and on account of the kindness shown left Miss Boyce his entire fortune of 1 million dollars.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as to be unable to live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50c at H. L. Tucker's drug store.

KENTUCKY MOB THREATENS

TO LYNCH SPRADING.

Father is Accused of Killing Daughter and Infant Son—Deed Arouses Entire Community.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 2.—A special from Inez, Ky., to the Enquirer says: Pleasant Sprading, held for the killing of his 4-year-old son and 15-year-old daughter, is threatened with lynching. Sprading's family consisted of wife, three daughters and son.

With his daughters and boy, the father was herding sheep last Friday. The boy was unable to keep up with the others. The father placed him on a stone beside a spring, telling him to wait until his return. The boy, becoming tired of sitting still, began to peel loose bark off a tree that overhung the spring. Presently the father returned and noticing the bark on the ground asked the boy who had done it. The boy replied that he had.

"I would rather have you deal than raise you to destroy everything on the farm," is the reply the father is said to have made, and then, it is charged, he picked up a stone and struck the boy on the head knocking him down. Then it is alleged that he kicked the prostrate boy in the head until he killed him and, turning to his daughters, threatened them with a like fate, if they ever told what had occurred. Afterward he went home and told that the boy, while chasing sheep, had run against a tree and killed himself.

Becoming alarmed, he took his eldest daughter and went to the mountains. His wife hired her neighbors to bury the body of the dead child and went to the home of Judge E. Hensley.

She told him of the death of her son and said she suspected her husband, who told her he was going into the mountain woods to hunt squirrels and added that at different times he had threatened to kill the whole family. The Judge took her with her two young daughters to his home and presented the case to the Grand Jury. One of the little girls told the jury that her father had kicked the boy to death. Shortly afterward a Sheriff's posse captured Sprading in the mountains, but his eldest daughter was not with him. The posse is still searching for her, while he is held on the charge of murder.

Was Disarmed in Court.

St. Joseph, Mo., November 3.—H. C. Sheddick, a former newspaper man, created a sensation in the district court room this morning by appearing in the presence of several hundred people with a loaded rifle after he had some words with Judge Woodson. Surmising that he meant harm, Deputy Sheriff Frans approached Sheddick and with the assistance of two other men disarmed him. He resisted the officers and was lodged in jail. It is believed he intended to injure someone, possibly Judge Woodson.

Sheddick will have a hearing for insanity, as it is thought that he has been affected by his troubles. A week ago he pleaded a case before Judge Woodson and acted so peculiarly that the court was forced to reprimand him.

An Angry Woman With an Ax.

Muskogee, I. T., Nov. 1.—With an ax in her hand Mrs. Emma Welsh climbed to the roof of a blacksmith shop and from that to a second-story window of a gambling house in Fort Gibson last night. After smashing the window she got inside where her husband was found. The infuriated woman used her ax, quick and hard and before the occupants of the room could get out of the doors and windows she had demolished most of the furniture in the room. When she had finished, she took her husband and went home. She says he has been frequenting the place and losing his money and that she appealed to the officers in vain. She resolved to take the law in her own hands and she did take an ax. No arrests have been made.

Death of Teddy McCurdy.

Warrensburg star, 21.

Teddy, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Will McCurdy, of Missouri avenue, died Thursday evening about six o'clock, of kidney trouble. The little fellow was extremely bright and of a sweet disposition, and his death is particularly sad. The funeral was held Friday afternoon and burial was in the city cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. McCurdy were residents of Butler when Teddy was born and spent the greater part of his young life, his parents moving to Warrensburg this last spring. He was a precocious little fellow, and everybody knew and loved him in the neighborhood of their home. Mrs. Geo. W. Ellis was his sister.

An American Was Murdered.

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 31.—Details have been received here of the murder of Griffo P. Hall, the American mining engineer, at Guanaes, near Coos Melal, Naupon territory. He was visiting the home of an Italian merchant, Salvador Trotta. Two of the latter's clerks also were murdered. Signor Trotta was, it is said, persecuted by the authorities of Guanaes and he had started for Buenos Ayres. In his absence his house was attacked. Mr. Hall had been a resident of Argentina many years. He was married to the daughter of Colonel Olaseoga, president of the Argentina Bolivian boundary commission.

MULE FOOTED HOGS.

Johnson County Farmers Will Stock up With Them.

Some time ago Dr. R. S. Black, of Ottawa, Kan., who was formerly head surgeon of the Santa Fe road, purchased a farm south of city, says the Warrensburg Star. He has named the farm Fairacres, and he is now engaged in stocking it. He has ready for shipment here now some fine Shorthorn cattle and some Poland China hogs.

Next spring, however, Dr. Black will introduce a novelty on his farm in the shape of stock. He has contracted with a breeder in Minnesota for a number of head of mulefooted hogs. The hogs are just as good a breed as Poland China and they are immune from cholera. They have been developed from the old hog of the south to a first-class animal.
